

FAQ (Frequently Asked Questions)

Do you use an audio engineer for all recordings?

We include our in-house audio engineer on all projects. We utilize this approach, because it is efficient and provides the best experience. No one knows the environment, equipment and routing better than our engineer. Our engineer has earned his bachelor of science in recording arts and is pro-tools certified.

Can I tour the studio before committing to a service?

You bet! Frankly, we recommend you visit the studio and our engineer before starting any project. We offer free consultation, estimates and tours. Consider Forte Studios not just as an option, but also a resource that educates on the principles and science to look for in a top notch studio.

Can I record my voice with beats, instrumentals or karaoke?

This a a great gift, audition or commercial idea. Rappers, soloists, vocalist and the like are welcomed to bring their instrumental tracks into the studio. Our studio provides over 17,000 instruments and digital samples. We have a music producer that can create custom samples and instrumentals for your project!
